The proceedings started with recitation from the Holy Quran. Mr. Jawed Akhtar Bhatti, President of The Rawalpindi Chamber of Commerce and Industry thanked members for attending the Emergent Meeting called for to discuss SRO 191(1)/2012 dated 23rd February 2012, amendment in the Sales Tax Rules, 2006, to include chapter XIV A for provision of CNIC or NTN of unregistered personals.

The Executive Committee of the Rawalpindi Chamber of Commerce and Industry in its emergent meeting held on 2nd March 2012 strongly condemned the SRO 191(1)/2012 dated 23rd February 2012, amendment in the Sales Tax Rules, 2006, to include chapter XIV A for provision of CNIC or NTN of unregistered personals.

Members held the opinion that such initiatives will create an environment of distrust by impacting the taxpayers and will ultimately reduce the tax culture.

The house unanimously rejected the above-mentioned SRO and loudly phrased the government functionaries for immediate liquidation of said amendment.

Since there was no other point, the meeting was adjourned with a vote of thanks to the Chair.
